

Equal Opportunities Policy & Procedures

Updated 06/12/22

Introduction

The Bike Experience accepts that in society certain groups or individuals are denied equality on the grounds of race, gender, marital status, caring responsibilities, disability, gender re-assignment, age, social class, sexual orientation and religion/belief or any other factor irrelevant to the purpose in view. The Bike Experience welcomes the statutory requirements laid down in the Equalities Act 2010;

Note: the Equalities Act replaced the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 and the Race Relations Act 1976 and supplements the Equal Pay Act 1970) and The Bike Experience is committed to complying with the Equalities Act 2010 with such other Acts and statutory requirements furthering equality of opportunity for all as also apply to its charitable activities.

The Bike Experience recognises that it has moral and social responsibilities that go beyond the provisions of the abovementioned Acts and Regulations, and that it should support and contribute to the wider process of change through all aspects of its work and practices in order to eliminate discrimination and promote equality and diversity.

The Bike Experience is committed to taking positive steps to ensure that:

- all people are treated with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all;
- equality of opportunity and diversity is promoted;
- services are accessible, appropriate and delivered fairly to all;
- the mix of its employees, volunteers and management committees reflects, as far as possible, the broad mix of the population of its local community;
- traditionally disadvantaged sections of the community are encouraged to participate in policy decisions about, and the management of the services provided.

Policy

This policy applies to all Trustees, staff, volunteers, management committee members, users and the general public. Commitment to Equality and diversity are central to the values of The Bike Experience. The Bike Experience will treat all people with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all. It will promote equality of opportunity and diversity. It will eliminate all forms of discrimination on grounds of race, gender, marital status, caring responsibilities, disability, gender re-assignment, age, social class, sexual orientation, religion/ belief, irrelevant offending background or any other factor irrelevant to the purpose in view.

It will tackle social exclusion, inequality, discrimination and disadvantage. For this policy to be successful, it is essential that everyone is committed to and involved in its delivery. Our goal is to work towards a just society free from discrimination, harassment and prejudice. We aim to embed this in all its policies, procedures, day-to-day practices and external relationships.

Aims

The Bike Experience aims to:

- Provide services that are accessible according to need;
- Promote equality of opportunity and diversity in volunteering, employment and development;
- Create effective partnerships with all parts of our community.

Objectives

Our objective is to realise our standards by:

- Sustaining, regularly evaluating and continually improving its services to ensure equality and diversity principles and best practice are embedded in our performance to meet the needs of individuals and groups;
- Working together with the community to provide accessible and relevant service provision that responds to service users' needs;
- Ensuring staff, volunteers and trustees are representative of the community served and the employment policies are fair and robust;
- Responding to volunteer's & employees' needs and encouraging their development to increase their contribution to effective service delivery;
- Recognising and valuing the differences and individual contribution that all people make to The Bike Experience;
- Challenging discrimination;
- Providing fair resource allocation;
- Being accountable.

Why have this policy?

The Bike Experience recognises, respects and values diversity in its Trustees, employees, volunteers and service users. We have this policy because it is a people-led organisation that must always ensure it meets the needs of the community through fair and appropriate employment and development of the people who work and volunteer for The Bike experience.

Procedures

This policy covers the behaviour of all people employed by or volunteering for The Bike experience or using their services and sets out the way they can expect to be treated in turn by The Bike Experience. The overall responsibility for ensuring adherence to and implementation of this policy lies with the Trustees, staff and the management committee.

The Bike Experience will implement this policy by:

- Ensuring that it is a condition of employment;
- Ensuring that Trustees, Management committee, volunteers and users are made aware, understand, agree with, and are willing to implement, this policy. All staff and volunteers will be given a copy of this policy as part of their induction;
- Actively encouraging Trustees, staff, management committee and volunteers to participate in anti-discriminatory training;
- Monitoring the services, publicity and events provided by The Bike Experience, to ensure that they are accessible to all sections of the population and do not discriminate, and taking active steps to ensure that participation is representative.

The Bike Experience has declared its commitment to establishing, developing, implementing and reviewing a policy of equality of opportunity. Effective record keeping and monitoring, and acting on information gathered, are essential in order to measure effectiveness and plan progress. The management committee will review the policy annually.
